Chanel and Her World: Friends, Fashion, and Fame. Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel (1883–1971) is a fashion icon unlike any other. She invented modern clothing for women: at the height of the Belle Époque, she stripped women of their corsets and feathers, bobbed their hair, put them in bathing suits, and sent them out to get tanned in the sun.

This book chronicles the life of Coco Chanel, and shows the world in which she lived. Early pictures of her and her friends paint a picture of a creative, intelligent woman who went against the grain, and changed the way women dress forever. Showed her climb from peasant to world famous designer in pictures that were informal, and yet informative.

The emphasis is more on the positive and creative parts of Chanel's life. I found the years when Chanel first set up business through the 1930's the most fascinating. It is a fairly quick read. Loved the abundant images on every page. You visually immerse yourself in her world. There are wonderful quotes of Chanel's sprinkled throughout.
