Markus Hattstein (Author of Islam)

It covers all major Islamic dynasties and their take on art and architecture. It's a big book; make sure it will fit into your shelf. It's my understanding that this has been translated to and/or from another language. I have seen the German version of this very same book and it might be that it was written first in German then translated into English.

Islam : art and architecture (Book, 2015) [WorldCat.org]

I am honoured to be the first to review this excellent book about Islamic art & architecture. So far it's title has been Islam; Art & Architecture , but I feel that title does not define the subject of Islam as properly as the title of Islamic art & architecture would , because that title would fit more the new edition of the book which should contain the same cover.
